SAWMILL RESTAURANT

Welcome to the old Sawmill. Many years ago, this busy farm would see horse drawn carts bringing wood through the end of the restaurant, as shown by the artists impression on the rear wall.

In its day, the buildings were traditional workshops for various skilled tradesmen, such as Blacksmiths, Farriers, Carpenters and the Foreman. They contained forges and steam driven machinery to enable the work to be carried out.

Today the entire lower courtyard has been sympathetically renovated to create the bed and breakfast accommodation you can see from the restaurant windows. Some of the original features have been retained, and the room names are derived from their previous functions.

Your breakfast today is cooked by our in-house kitchen team, under the guidance of our highly respected Head Chef, John Barrow. Chef is very keen on sourcing quality produce from local suppliers and markets.

Our bread is homemade and can be purchased separately, if you wish to take some with you, to enjoy later.

Breakfast is served from 8am through to 9:30am Monday to Saturday, and until 10am on Sundays.

Your breakfast is included in the price of your accommodation and if you would like to invite any non-resident guests to join you for this hearty meal, then please let a member of the team know; and we can arrange this for an additional £10 per person.

We hope you enjoy a meal that will really set you up for the day!
